

2nd December - Saints, Martyrs and Missionaries of Asia-Asian Elephant

Asian elephants are smaller than their African cousins and have much littler ears. All elephants sometimes greet one another by wrapping their trunks together. They are highly intelligent; they really do have good memories, can solve problems and recognise themselves in a mirror.