

9th December - Badger

Badgers eat all sorts of food but earthworms are their favourite supper. They mainly come out at night to forage for food. They are very clean creatures and never go to the toilet in their homes (sett); instead they share communal toilets outside. An alternative name for badgers in some parts of the UK is brock.